Please see the draft circular proposed by P.W.D. The object underlying the circular is sound but the question is whether it will not confer unlimited powers on the Heads of Offices and Depts. who will be able to withhold all sorts of applications including those which contain genuine grivances. It is therefore likely that the circular will result in depriving the Govt. servants of their right to approach Govt. with their grievances. So far as P. & S.D. can see the number of officers who petition to Govt. for promotion etc. is not large and it does not seem advisable to penalise bonafide persons because of the mistake of a few. The proper course therefore for achieving the object P.W.D. has in view seems to be to issue instructions to officers not to petition Govt. unnecessarily and to tell them that severe notice will be taken if anybody petitions to Govt. without proper justification. If approved, this course may be suggested to P.W.D.

GOVERNMENT OF BOMBAY.
Public Works Department.
Circular No. 1894/48.
Bombay Castle (Bombay No.1),
28th December 1949.

CIRCULAR OF GOVERNMENT.

Applications from Divisional and lower gazetted officers are occasionally submitted to Government by heads of departments under the Public Works Department requesting transfer or promotion. The consideration of such applications causes considerable embarrassment and no useful purpose is generally served by forwarding such applications of Government. At the same time Government is anxious that no Government servant should be deprived of his right to approach Government with his grievances. Government is accordingly pleased to direct that applications from gazetted Government servants, who are in active service, for (a) transfer and (b) promotion in the ordinary course, should not be made unnecessarily to Government and that strict notice should be taken of representations on these subjects which are without proper justification. Similarly formal applications from non-gazetted servants for promotion in the ordinary course of gazetted rank should also not be made unnecessarily.
